Minako is so happy and excited. Creamy Mami and Fancy Lala have a duet concert today and she managed to get tickets. Artemis doesn't understand why she's always excited when idols are involved.

"You don't even know them!" He says to Minako. "You don't have any of their CDs."

"So what? A concert is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity that you can't miss! Besides, they're so cute."

Artemis sighs. Minako will never change.

Arriving at the concert room, Minako waits patiently for the show to start. When Creamy Mami and Fancy Lala appear on stage, she screams with the other fans. Creamy Mami and Fancy Lala sing several of their songs and Minako is ecstatic. She will buy their CDs and ask for their autographs at the show's end.

Minako, after having bought the CDs, is in the long queue for the autographs. It moves so slowly that Minako thinks she'll never make it. She knows that Artemis would scold her for that but she slips away.

"Venus Power, Make Up!"

Now that she's Sailor Venus, she cuts through the queue, pretending there is danger, and arrives in front of Creamy Mami and Fancy Lala.

"Oh? Good evening." Says Creamy Mami.

"Is there a problem?" Asks Fancy Lala.

"I just wanted to make sure everything was okay!" Says Sailor Venus quickly. "And also to get your autographs."

Sailor Venus hands them the CDs. The fans in line grumble, but the two singers sign the CDs for Sailor Venus. The Guardian of Love and Beauty, filled to the brim, thanks them and leaves.

Before going back home, she becomes Minako again. When she enters her room, Artemis asks her if she liked the concert.

"Oh, Artemis, it was WAY TOO awesome! When I'm an idol, I'm going to be as popular as them."

Artemis sighs, again.
